2. Among other things, Windels Marx spent significant time during the Compensation Period on the Trustee’s and Baker’s active individual subsequent transfer cases, including drafting and revising amended subsequent transfer complaints, related document reviews and factual investigations, assisting Baker with the review of certain of its subsequent transfer complaints as members of its complaint review team, and briefing, research, and participation in a hearing on the defendants' motion to stay in one of Windels Marx' subsequent transfer cases.

3. Windels Marx also expended considerable time during the Compensation Period on matters common to all subsequent transfer cases, including, in particular, assisting on matters related to the Trustee's appeal of the good faith standard and pleading burden before the Second Circuit, including various hearing-related preparations.

4. The following discussion and the materials attached to this Thirty-Fifth Application cover the major categories of services for which allowance of compensation is sought.

II. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

The SIPA Liquidation

5. On December 11, 2008, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "District Court") against defendants Madoff and BLMIS (Case No. 08 CV 10791) (the "SEC Action"). The SEC complaint alleged that Madoff and BLMIS engaged in fraud through the investment advisory activities of BLMIS.

6. In the SEC Action, the SEC consented to a combination of its own action with an application of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC"). Thereafter, pursuant to section 78eee(a)(3) of the SIPA, SIPC filed an application in the District Court alleging, inter alia, that BLMIS was not able to meet its obligations to securities customers as they came due and, accordingly, its customers needed the protection afforded by SIPA.

7. On December 15, 2008, District Judge Stanton granted the SIPC application, which among other things:

- appointed Irving H. Picard as the SIPA Trustee for the liquidation of the business of BLMIS pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 78eee(b)(3);
- appointed Baker as counsel to the SIPA Trustee pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 78eee(b)(3); and
- removed the liquidation proceeding (the “BLMIS Liquidation”) to this Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 78eee(b)(4).

The Bernard L. Madoff Chapter 7 Case

8. On April 13, 2009, Blumenthal & Associates Florida General Partnership, Martin Rappaport Charitable Remainder Unitrust, Martin Rappaport, Marc Cherno and Steven Morganstern (collectively, the “Petitioning Creditors”), through their attorneys, Milberg LLP, filed an involuntary petition for relief under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code against Madoff.

9. On April 16, 2009, the Petitioning Creditors filed a motion to appoint a trustee in Madoff’s case, and on that same date, the Court entered an Order to Show Cause Why the Court Should Not Enter an Order Directing the United States Trustee to Appoint an Interim Trustee.

10. On April 20, 2009, the Court entered an Order directing the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the “UST”) to appoint an interim trustee to perform the duties of trustee as set forth in Bankruptcy Code §§ 701 and 704, pursuant to which the UST appointed Alan Nisselson as the Chapter 7 Trustee on April 21, 2009.

11. On April 24, 2009, the Court entered an Order authorizing and empowering the Chapter 7 Trustee to retain Windels Marx to represent him in the Madoff case, effective as of April 21, 2009.

12. On May 5, 2009, the SIPA Trustee and SIPC filed a joint motion for entry of an order pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code substantively consolidating the Madoff estate into the BLMIS Liquidation (the “Substantive Consolidation Motion”).

13. On June 9, 2009, after the Chapter 7 Trustee filed a Response to the Substantive Consolidation Motion, the Court entered a Consent Order (“Consent Order”) [Docket No. 252] which, among other things, approved the Substantive Consolidation Motion, nunc pro tunc to December 11, 2008.

14. On July 16, 2009, this Court entered an Order granting the Trustee’s motion to retain Windels Marx as special counsel on behalf of the consolidated estate, nunc pro tunc as of June 9, 2009 [Docket No. 327], finding that Windels Marx is disinterested pursuant to section 78eee(b)(6) of SIPA, section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a) and is therefore in compliance with the disinterestedness requirement in section 78eee(b)(3) of SIPA, section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Bankruptcy Rule 2014(a).

15. On November 23, 2011, this Court entered an Order [Docket No. 4547] making certain provisions of this Court’s Order Establishing Procedures Governing Interim Monthly Compensation of the Trustee and Baker & Hostetler LLP, amended and superseded in its entirety on June 1, 2011, applicable to Windels Marx, nunc pro tunc as of June 1, 2011.

V. COMPENSATION REQUESTED

49. During the Thirty-Fifth Compensation Period, Windels Marx expended 3,628.60 hours in the rendition of professional and paraprofessional services on behalf of the Trustee and the Chapter 7 Trustee, resulting in a blended attorney hourly rate of $470.90 for fees incurred. The blended rate for all professionals was $463.19.

50. Prior to filing this Thirty-Fifth Application, Windels Marx provided to SIPC and the Trustee (i) its December 1, 2020 through March 31, 2021 monthly statements setting forth the Firm's total fees for services rendered and expenses incurred on behalf of the consolidated estate for each month during the period December 1, 2020 through March 31, 2021 in the aggregate amount of $2,024,707.13 and $2,700.80, respectively, and (ii) a draft of this Thirty-Fifth Application. The Firm wrote off certain unbilled and billed time, and SIPC's staff made certain additional adjustments and suggestions, which were adopted by Windels Marx. After such write-offs and adjustments (and the 10% discount), Windels Marx's December 1, 2020 through March 31, 2021 monthly statements reflected total fees and expenses of $1,680,720.50 and $1,725.80, respectively.

51. Specifically, Windels Marx's total fees and expenses for this Thirty-Fifth Compensation Period were $2,024,707.13 and $2,700.80, respectively. In connection with preparing each of the four monthly statements and this Thirty-Fifth Application, Windels Marx voluntarily (i) wrote off unbilled time of $123,538.80, (ii) wrote off billed time of $33,701.12 and (iii) reduced its total remaining fees of $1,867,467.21 to $1,680,720.50 by discounting the Firm's rates by 10% at SIPC's request (resulting in a voluntary reduction of $343,986.63 or approximately 16.99% of Windels Marx's total fees). Windels Marx also agreed to write off expenses customarily charged to other clients in the amount of $975.00, resulting in $1,725.80 of remaining expenses. Such fees and expenses are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in the Chapter 7 and 11 Cases and comparable bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy cases in a competitive national legal market. Total hours expended after all reductions equal 3,628.60. In addition to the fees sought in this application, with the approval and support of SIPC, Windels Marx requests a release of $1,143,725.78 from the holdback, which equals approximately 50% of all amounts (i) previously held back and not released to the Firm and (ii) contemplated to be held back by this Thirty-Fifth Application.<sup>2</sup>

52. There is no agreement or understanding among the Trustee, Windels Marx or any other person, other than members of Windels Marx, for sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in this case.

53. This Thirty-Fifth Application has been prepared in accordance with the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements of Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases adopted by the Court on February 5, 2013 (the "Local Guidelines"). Pursuant to the Local Guidelines, the certification of Howard L. Simon, Esq. regarding compliance with the same is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

<sup>2</sup> In connection with Windels Marx's First through Thirty-Fifth fee applications, $15,254,459.64 was, or is contemplated to be, held back. By Orders dated September 14, 2010, December 17, 2013, December 18, 2014, August 20, 2015, September 7, 2016, August 23, 2017, August 30, 2018, September 5, 2019, and August 26, 2020, the Court previously approved the release of an aggregate amount of $12,967,008.09. Windels Marx now requests that $1,143,725.78 be released, or approximately 50% of the holdback balance as of March 31, 2021 of $2,287,451.55.

54. Exhibit B annexed hereto provides a schedule of Windels Marx professionals and paraprofessionals who have provided services during the Thirty-Fifth Compensation Period, the capacity in which each individual is employed by the Firm, the year in which each attorney was licensed to practice law in New York, the hourly billing rate charged by Windels Marx for services provided by each individual and the aggregate number of hours billed by each individual. The 10% discount (as described above) is already reflected in the total amount billed.

55. Exhibit C annexed hereto provides a schedule of the expenses for which reimbursement is requested. The requested expenses are customarily charged to and paid by Windels Marx's bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy clients. At SIPC's request, Windels Marx has not charged for local travel expenses and overtime meals, which categories of expenses are regularly charged to and paid by Windels Marx's clients.

56. Exhibit D annexed hereto is a summary by matter and task code of services performed by Windels Marx from December 1, 2020 through March 31, 2021.

57. To the extent that time or disbursement charges for services rendered or disbursements incurred relate to the Thirty-Fifth Compensation Period, but were not classified or processed prior to the preparation of this Thirty-Fifth Application, Windels Marx reserves the right to request additional compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.

VI. WINDELS MARX'S REQUEST FOR INTERIM COMPENSATION SHOULD BE GRANTED

58. Section 78eee(b)(5)(A) of SIPA provides in pertinent part that, upon appropriate application and after a hearing, "[t]he court shall grant reasonable compensation for services rendered and reimbursement for proper costs and expenses incurred ... by a trustee ...” Section 78eee(b)(5)(C) of SIPA specifically establishes SIPC’s role in connection with applications for compensation and the consideration the Court should give to SIPC’s recommendation concerning fees. That section provides as follows:

In any case in which such allowances are to be paid by SIPC without reasonable expectation of recoupment thereof as provided in this Chapter and there is no difference between the amounts requested and the amounts recommended by SIPC, the court shall award the amounts recommended by SIPC. In determining the amount of allowances in all other cases, the court shall give due consideration to the nature, extent, and value of the services rendered, and shall place considerable reliance on the recommendations of SIPC.

59. To the extent the general estate is insufficient to pay such allowances as an expense of administration, section 78eee(b)(5)(E) of SIPA requires SIPC to advance the funds necessary to pay the compensation of Windels Marx (see section 78fff-3(b)(2) of SIPA).

60. Based on the allocation process set forth in SIPA, the Trustee has determined at this time that he has no reasonable expectation that the general estate will be sufficient to make any distribution to general creditors or pay any administrative expenses. That is, the Trustee believes that any assets allocated to the BLMIS general estate will be exhausted prior to his being able to reimburse SIPC fully. The Trustee has been advised by SIPC that it concurs with this belief of the Trustee. Accordingly, any fees and expenses allowed by this Court will be paid from advances by SIPC without any reasonable expectation by SIPC of recoupment thereof.

61. Therefore, with respect to this Thirty-Fifth Application, Windels Marx requests that consistent with section 78eee(b)(5)(C) of SIPA, the Court “award the amounts recommended by SIPC.” See In re Bell & Beckwith, 112 B.R. 876 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1990). Windels Marx expects that SIPC will file its recommendation to the Court with respect to this Thirty-Fifth Application prior to the hearing, currently scheduled for August 18, 2021.

62. Windels Marx submits that the request for interim allowance of compensation made through this Thirty-Fifth Application is reasonable and complies with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code governing applications for compensation and reimbursement of expenses, pursuant to section 78eee(b)(5) of SIPA.

VII. CONCLUSION

63. Windels Marx respectfully submits that the services rendered during the Thirty-Fifth Compensation Period merit the approval of the fees and disbursements requested herein, and respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order: (i) allowing and awarding $1,680,720.50 (of which 80%, or $1,344,576.40 is to be paid currently, and 20%, or $336,144.10 is to be deferred through the conclusion of the liquidation proceeding or further order of the Court) as an interim payment for professional services rendered by Windels Marx during the Thirty-Fifth Compensation Period, and $1,725.80 as reimbursement of the actual and necessary costs and expenses incurred by the Firm in connection with the rendition of such services, plus a release of $1,143,725.78 from the “holdback” accrued in connection with the Firm’s First through Thirty-Fifth fee applications and (ii) granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
